

COMMISSIONER RODNEY ELLIS
HARRIS COUNTY
PRECINCT ONE

Dear Friends,

As County Government officials, it's our job to meet people where they are and deliver to them the information and help they need as best we can. Right now, that means meeting people at their homes. Being aware of what is happening in your community can be hard when you can't physically be there, which is why we have been working on unique ways to connect during these unprecedented times.

One of the new avenues for information we have created is Precinct One's very own podcast, One for All.

Have you ever had a question about County Government or a popular issue that everyone is talking about but didn't want to ask or didn't know who to ask?

We've got you covered. One For All will cover a wide array of issues and topics, and aims to answer any question you might have about county government, Harris County, or Precinct One.

The goal of this podcast is to demystify county government. We will be talking to community experts and advocates, and reaching out to different audiences who care about the issues, but don't know how the system actually works. Whether you know the ins-and-outs of Commissioners Court or you still don't know the differences between County and City government -- we'll walk you through the basics of county government and how they impact your community.

Our podcast is hosted by our own Communications team members, and we have a great line up of topics and interviews coming up in the next couple of episodes, including health care, equitable economic opportunities, and an interview with the incoming Elections Administrator Isabel Longoria.

We want to reach out to people in your community and get them involved, so share this podcast widely! You can subscribe to this podcast on Apple Podcasts, Spotify, Amazon Music, or through this link <https://oneforall.buzzsprout.com>

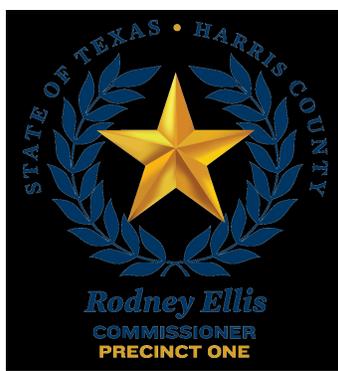

I know that this will be a great avenue for our community to connect with us and to learn more about the work we are doing here at Precinct One.

We hope you follow along!

Sincerely,
